

September 21, 2001

"Letters"

Star Tribune
425 Portland Avenue
Minneapolis, MN 55488

Dear Neighbors,

It happens every day. The equivalent of 100 jumbo jets carrying 400 kids each crash. No survivors. Forty thousand children die daily just because they're poor. Why isn't this regarded as a global crisis? And why have massive resources and firm resolve never been devoted to an International War on Poverty, which would certainly make the world at once fairer and safer?

With best wishes,

Sanford Bern
Edina

4400 Morningside Road
Edina, MN 55416

952-925-5738